DELAWARE COUNCIL ON LIBRARIES PRESENTS

THE 2008 DELAWARE LIBRARY SUMMIT WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10TH!

Delaware Libraries – Connecting People and Communities. Enhancing Promise and Potential.

Delaware libraries are no longer just about books. Today, our mission and capabilities are literally leaping off the page, and expanding in exciting new directions. We're connecting people and communities with opportunity and information, and helping them develop knowledge. In doing so, libraries are expanding possibilities for all Delawareans and empowering them to reach their full potential.

But, there's much more to do – and we need your ideas and perspectives.

Help us as we write the next chapter in the expansion and development of Delaware library services. Mark your calendars and plan to attend the 2008 Delaware Library Summit: Wednesday, December 10, at Dover Downs, in Dover.

- Join library friends and advocates, leaders in Delaware government, library professionals, community partners and others.
- Learn about recent Delaware library accomplishments and the newest initiatives.
- Be part of the dialogue on future programs and services that can make a difference in lives and communities.
- Help us continue the momentum and craft the future of Delaware library programs, services, technologies and capabilities in supporting Health Care, Economic Development, Education, Lifelong Learning, and more!
