Delaware Libraries
Outdoor Learning & Experiences

[Lewes, Sussex]
The Lewes Public Library service area currently has a population of 3,083 with a median age of 69. The town is primarily affluent retirees and some active young families. The Library is the go-to place for most community members who enjoy volunteering. There is also a small African-American population.

Through the design team’s conversations with the Library Director, the library discussed that Lewes is the busiest branch is Sussex. There is a Biking community who host annual fundraisers. The community is very philanthropic and many of the older members come from positions of power and are already tech savvy.

The MSS design team proposes activating outdoor experiences through, Recreation, Personal Enrichment and Cultural Engagement for all its residents at the Lewes Public Library.
